RESUME SCREENING SYSTEM USING PYTHON (.TXT & .PDF)

```
import re
import pdfplumber

try:
    # Step 1: Read resume file
    file_name = input("Enter resume file name (.txt / .pdf): ")

    resume_data = ""

    # 🔷 Handle TXT files
    if file_name.endswith(".txt"):
        with open(file_name, "r", encoding="utf-8") as file:
            resume_data = file.read()

    # 🔷 Handle PDF files
    elif file_name.endswith(".pdf"):
        with pdfplumber.open(file_name) as pdf:
            for page in pdf.pages:
                text = page.extract_text()
                if text:   # avoid None error
                    resume_data += text

    else:
        print("❌ Unsupported file format (Only .txt and .pdf allowed)") exit()

    # Convert to lowercase
    resume_data = resume_data.lower()

    print("\nResume loaded successfully!\n")
```

```
    # Step 2: Take job skills input skills_input = input("Enter required skills (comma separated): ").lower() required_skills = [skill.strip() for skill in skills_input.split(",")]

    total_skills = len(required_skills)
    matched_skills = 0

    print("\nChecking skills...\n")

    # Step 3: Match skills using regex
    for skill in required_skills:
        pattern = r"\b" + re.escape(skill) + r"\b"

        if re.search(pattern, resume_data):
            print(f"{skill} ✅ Found")
            matched_skills += 1
        else:
            print(f"{skill} ❌ Not Found")

    # Step 4: Calculate score
    score = (matched_skills / total_skills) * 100 if total_skills > 0 else 0

    print("\n-------------------------") print(f"Matched Skills: {matched_skills}/{total_skills}") print(f"Resume Score: {score:.2f}/100")

    # Step 5: Classification
    print("\nResult:")
```

```
    if score > 90:
        print("🔥 Priority Candidate")
    elif score >= 70:
        print("✅ Shortlisted")
    else:
        print("❌ Not Selected")

except FileNotFoundError:
    print("Error: Resume file not found. Please check file name.")

except Exception as e:
    print("Something went wrong:", e)
```